THE HEALTH OF THE ARMY. Recommendations in the Report of Surgeon General Moore.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES-THE DEATH RATE-THE ARMY MEDICAL MUSEUM-SOLDIER PATIENTS IN PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL-THE HOSPITAL CORPS-RETIREMENTS.

The annual report of Surgeon General Moore of the army to the Secretary of War was made public today. His estimate for the year ending June 30, 1891, is $215,000. Provision must also be made for preventing the spread of epidemic and contagious diseases and the employment, when necessary, of skilled nurses for the proper care of such cases.

THE ARMY MEDICAL MUSEUM. Reference is made to the work of the army medical museum in this city, which now contains 27,982 specimens. He says: "A careful study has been made of the skulls and skeletons collected in Arizona by the Hemenway southwestern archeological expedition, and the results of this study are embodied in a report with numerous illustrations, which is ready for publication. As these specimens are undoubtedly among the oldest human remains found in North America, a large part of them being at report is specially interesting and valuable, and it is recommended that Congress authorize that 1,000 copies of it be printed at the gov-ernment printing office for distribution by this office." Mentioning the hospital corps he re-marks: "The personnel of its lowest grade is not yet what it should be; this is to be at tributed chiefly to the meager pay."

He recommends that the matter of increase pay for them be again brought to the attention

PATIENTS AT PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL. Under the provisions of the act of October 2 1888, making appropriation of $17,000 for the support of eighty-five destitute patients in the city of Washington a contract was made by the surgeon general with the Providence hospital and has been fulfilled to his satisfaction and without complaint on the part of the person sent there for treatment. There were nine hundred patients treated during the year. NON-EFFECTIVE MEDICAL OFFICERS.

"The large number of non-effective medica officers," says the surgeon general, "is a subject for grave consideration. The remedy for this evil is to be found in the retirement of those officers who are permanently disabled in order that their places may be filled by effective There were 31,420 admissions to sick report democrat and an earnest tariff reformer also.

The New York Herald prints what it claims to be an investigation of the finding of Belle Brown, in which one of its reporters is unable to locate Mr. Immanuel Hart, with whose wife Miss Brown, was living while in New York. Mr. Hart has his place of business at 23d and Broadway and lives on the second floor of the apartment house No. 341 West 18th street, at either of which places doubtless some trace of him can be found.

There is no reason to suppose that Mrs. Conkling did not act in good faith also. If the Herald will examine its own files it will find scattered through October advertisement inserted by Mrs. Conkling seeking employment for Belle as a companion. Mr. Hart engaged the young lady through this dvertisement. As stated in THE STAR, Mr. Hart manages the stereopticon views which are exhibited at 23d and Broadway.

There is also no truth in the story that Mr Brown remained in New York while some citi-zen of Washington came on here and fixed things with the papers. The only person ac-companying Mr. Brown was a STAR reporter, who remained in New York looking into the matter after Mr. Brown and his daughter had started for home.

THE CATHOLIC CENTENNIAL. Grand Preparations for the Street Pageant and Pontificial Mass.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.-Preparations were in full blast today for the great Catholic celebrations to begin here tomorrow. The hundredth birthday of the Catholic hierarchy will be the first event, and, according to arrangements confirmed at a meeting of the preliminary committees this morning, it will tomorrow be inaugurated with a magnificent street procession of clergy and lay societies. Arrivals of delegates and others are already well up in the thousands, and today it was with difficulty that rooms could be secured at the hotels, while carriages at the depots were at a premium.

Archbishops, bishops, priests and laymen seemed to be fairly flocking into the city, and clean-shaven, clerical-looking faces were to be seen everywhere.

The cathedral where pontifical high mass, the chief ceremonial of the day will take place tomorrow, has been decorated with evergreen and ingeniously arranged electric lights. A seminary choir of forty male voices has been provided for the Gregorian "proper," of the mass. The "ordinary" is to be sung by the cathedral special choir of sixty mixed voices. Over six hundred priests are expected to walk in the street procession before the mass, weather permitting. Fears today are that the downpour of rain prevailing will continue and will stop all the out-door pageantry. If everything is propitious, however, the long line of annual death rate 8.15 per 1,000 of strength; priests will be joined in front of Cardinal Gibbons' residence by several scores of prelates, the bishops coming first, archbishops in the place of honor, at the last the American cardinal, Gibbons, accompanied by his Canadian confrere, Taschereau. In the line will be the pope's special delegate, the archbishop of Lepanto; Monsignor O'Connell, rector of the American college at Rome, and Monsignor Gadd, the representative of Cardinal Manning of England. Monsigner Gadd is the famous the "Manchester martyrs," Alien, Larkin and

FINAL PREPARATIONS. The last meeting devoted to preliminaries to the Catholic congress adjourned at 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was a joint session of the advisory committee, the committee on papers and the committee on organization. Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul presided, and among the prominent laymen present were Mayor Henry F. Brownson of Detroit and City Controller W. J. Orahan of Chicago. It was decided that the permanent organization of the congress placed in the hands of a committee appointed by the temporary chairman, ex-Gov. Lee Carroll, of Baltimore. The committee will consist of one member from each ecclesiastical province in the United States. Each paper read at the congress will be limited to twenty minutes in delivery, and discussion will Speakers are allowed not to exceed five minutes apiece. The final revised list of papers numbers fourteen, and with the order in which numbers fourteen, and with the order in which they will be presented in the congress are as follows: "Catholic congress," by Gilmary Shea of New York; "Lay action in the church," Henry F. Brown Detroit; "Papal independence," by Charles J.

Bonsparte, Battimore; "The new social order," Peter L. Foy, St. Louis; "The right of the state in education," Edmund J. Dunne of Floride: "Religion in education." W. L. Kelly St. ida; "Religion in education," W. L. Kelly, St. Paul; "Catholic journalism," George D. Wolff, Philadelphia; "Societies," M. J. Spaunhorstt, Conde B. Pallin, St. Louis; "Sunday observance," Manly B. Tello, Cleveland; "Temperance," John H. Campbell; "Catholic achievements in the century," Richard H. Clarke; "Labor and capital," Wm. Richards; "Church music." Hernan Allen, Chicago,

The noteworthy features this afternoon were the arrival of Cardinal Taschereau and the active work being done by the St. Louis delegates to secure the selection of their city as the place for holding the next congress. The argument used in favor of St. Louis is that next to Baltimore it is the oldest Catholic see in America and is second to no other city as a MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9.—Archbishop Heisse left for Baltimore last evening to attend the Roman Catholic congress. He was accompanied by Bishop Katzer of Green Bay, Bishop Flasch of LaCrosse, the Rev. Jos. Rainor of St. Francis seminary, Mgr. Zeinger, chancellor of the dio-cese; the Rev. Father Abbelon, chaplain of St. Mary's convent; the Rev. Geo. Brady of Portage, and Rev. Ambrose Murphy of LaCrosse. The laity of the Milwaukee diocese will be represented by the Hon. Edward O'Neil, Thos Shea and Jas. Conroy.

A BIG RAILROAD TRUST. It is Proposed to Take the Place of the Interstate Commission. CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Tribune says that a plan formulated in New York, intended to take the place of the Interstate Commerce railway association, has been submitted to the managers of the principal western roads. The text as printed shows that the or-G.O.; Chas. F. Trotter, West Virginia, clerk at ganization is to be known as "The People's transportation company," such compant to have control and management of all the traine of such roads as may contract with it. The stock of the company is to be distributed among the roads in interest upon a basis hereafter to be agreed upon, not subject to transfer. It is also to be managed by a board of directors composed of one officer from each road and three persons representing the New York banking interests.

Lexington, Ky., to the Evening Post says: Col.

recovery. The people are still greatly excited and hundreds have already visited office; William Schofield of Mississippi, from $1,000 to $1,200; John J. Hawley of New York, from $1,000 to $1,200; Edward L. Richmond of Wisconsin, from $900 to $1,000 by transfer from dead letter office.

He claims that in riding a bicycle on January 8 last on M street between 14th and 15th he ran into an unguarded excavation and he was badly in jured—his face cut and bruised, two teeth knocked out, and he has been put to trouble and expense and loss of time from his bus-iness, &c.

TWO CENTS.

Telegrams from Grande last night give another case of freezing—that of Joe Martin, a cowboy, who was employed with others in holding a herd of cattle near that point. The depth of snow cannot be correctly estimated.

The trainmen report much difficulty in differept cuts, which in some places are completely filled with dead cattle and sheep. Old cattle men say that with the present depth of snow stock will be unable to live for any length of time, and unless the cold weather moderates and the crust which has formed on the snow loosens ,the mortality among cattle will be tre-

CLARENDON, TEX., Nov. 9.—The deepest snow that has fallen here in twelve years is on the ground. It is six inches deep on a level. The drifts are nine feet deep up at Hartley and no passenger trains have reached here from Denver since Tuesday.

IN KANSAS. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—Dispatches from couthern and western Kansas give details of a fierce snow storm that raged there yesterday, Snow, hail and sleet fell thickly, and was driven so fiercely by the wind that in many places people did not even dare to venture out of doors. The trains are oors. The trains are somewhat delayed, though none have been abandoned.

THE MONTANA PROGRAM.

What Both Sides Propose to Do When the Legislature Meets.

HELENA, MONT., Nov. 9 .- Judge Sanders, Helena's police magistrate, started the machinery of state yesterday by administering the oath of office to Chief Justice Blake, who then swore in the other judges. Gov. Toole was sworn in, the inauguration being very informal, and the oath was administered by the governor's nephew, X. K. Stout, a notary public. A proclamation convening the legislature for not later than November 20 to elect United States Senators will be issued today. As according to the decision of the court the democrats have a majority of the legislature they will assert their rights in the premises. The republican plan now is given by a promi-nent republican. He said when the legislature convenes it will be called together by the state auditor. He is a republican. He will call the roll of members and in doing so he will recognize a sufficient number of republicans to se there will be a slim chance for the democrats. If the latter organize separately and elect two Senators the United States Senate, being republican, will admit the candidates of their faith. Gov. Toole has given no intimation when he will call the legislature, though he will do so

A SANDBAGGED WITNESS. CHICAGO, Nov. 9 .- Mrs. Mandie Morgan, who is said to be an important witness for the prosecution in the Cronin case, was sandbagged last night by an unknown person, and as a retion. Mrs. Morgan was returning from a visit about 9:30 p.m. and to shorten the distance she walked through the alley in the rear of the house. She had just entered the alley when a person closely wrap-ped in a heavy shawl stepped from the shadow of the building and dealt her a severe blow on the head. Had it not been for the roll of hair the blow would probably have killed her. For nearly an hour Mrs. Morgan was unconscious. Upon recovering she described her assailant as Plenty of Oil and a Live Horse.
